22nd March 2024

Dear Parents/guardians,

Shakespeare Week is one of my favourite weeks of the year and this year's celebration of the bard was superb! It was wonderful to see the children in their Tudor clothes and to hear how much they have learnt in the University challenge contest yesterday. We definitely have some budding Shakesporean actors among our Y6 – I look forward to seeing some of you on the stage or screen in the future.

It has been a magnificent week and I would like to thank all the staff and children for their enthusiasm and of course, you their parents and guardians for your support.

Uniform

Thank you to all of the parents who have taken time to complete the uniform questionnaire. We will be analysing the comments and will get back to you in due course.

Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday Mass will be celebrated at St. Ann's Church at 9:30am this Sunday. Some of our Caritas Ambassadors will be helping with the celebration. We would love to see you there.

Easter Eggshibition

The children's homework this week is to decorate a blown or hard boiled egg which will be displayed in our Junior Hall. Please send in your eggs on Monday 25th March 2024.

The "Eggshibition" will be open for parents to view on Monday 25th March in the Junior Hall from 3.30pm to 4.00pm.

Easter Pop up Stalls

On Monday, along with our Easter Eggshibition, we will be holding a Pop Up Easter Stall. This will include an Easter Egg Tombola, Gin Tombola, Book Stall as well as other items!

Please make sure you bring some change with you!

St Joseph's Penny

Thank you for returning your Donation Boxes in aid of Caritas. We are still collecting these boxes up until we finish for Easter on Thursday 28th March.
